Mohsen Emamdadi Taromi

Heavy Vehicle Driver | 20+ years of professional driving

mohsen.taromi.d@gmail.com | +98 917 159 8828 | Shiraz, Iran, ready to relocate to regional Australia

Scan for the full online profile

Professional summary

Experienced heavy vehicle driver with over 20 years of professional driving across long-haul freight, food transport, construction materials, general cargo and ambulance/patient transport. Iranian Class 1 heavy vehicle licence held since 1997 and a clean driving record. Certified petrol engine mechanic. Seeking employer sponsorship in a DAMA region (NT, WA) and committed to completing all Australian licence conversion and competency assessments.

Work experience

Self-Employed Professional Driver Iran, nationwide | 2008 to present

- Long-haul transport of general cargo, construction materials and food
- Vehicle maintenance, pre-trip checks and basic mechanical repairs
- Load securing, restraint and weight distribution
- Route planning and compliance with road safety regulations

Ambulance / Patient Transport Driver Sahib al-Zaman Hospital, Bandar Abbas | 2003 to 2006

- Safe and urgent transport of patients and medical equipment

Commercial Driver (Freight / Passenger) Tarigh-e Qods Company, Bandar Abbas | 1999 to 2001

Employment history is documented in Iranian social security records.

Licences

- Iranian Class 1: heavy goods over 6 tonnes and public transport (1997). Australian HR / HC assessment to be completed on arrival.
- Iranian Class 2: goods up to 6 tonnes (1997)
- Iranian Class 3 and Motorcycle (1997)
- Minibus/Bus, restricted D1 (2018)

Languages

Persian (native), English (basic A2, studying towards IELTS), Turkish (beginner)

Training and certifications

- Dangerous Goods Transport (ADR), 6 hours (expired, will renew)
- Initial Service Training, Freight Transport, 28 hours (expired, will renew)
- Initial Service Training, Passenger Transport, 24 hours (2013)
- Road Safety Refresher, Public Transport Fleet (2013)
- Petrol Engine Mechanic, 4-month vocational course (2007)
- Will complete heavy vehicle competency assessment, White Card and medical on arrival

Key skills

Heavy vehicle driving, long-distance and urban freight | Load securing and restraint | Pre-trip inspections and mechanical troubleshooting | Dangerous goods awareness | Road safety, first aid and emergency response | Reliable and comfortable with remote and isolated work

Referees and documents (licences, employment records, certificates) available on request.